

Early Reading Success

Kindergarten-Grade One

Last Stop on Market Street

Student's Name: _____

Beryl Irene Bailey, Ed.D., CCC/SLP

Name: _____

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

Directions: Point to the words next to Patsy Period. Track with your finger as I read the sentences. Now point to the question next to Quincy Question. Track with your finger as I read the question and three answer choices. Some questions will have you to fill in the blank space and some will ask you the meaning of an unknown word. Circle the letter of the correct answer.

Vocabulary in Context

 Patsy Period	“Some people watch the world with their ears.” That’s a fact. Their _____ too,” the man said, sniffing the air. “That’s a mighty fine perfume you’re wearing today, ma’am.”
 Quincy Question	1. Which word will make sense in the the blank space? a) eyes b) mouth c) nose
 Patsy Period	Nana glanced at the coin in CJ's palm.
 Quincy Question	2. What does the word glanced mean in this sentence? a) looked b) peeked c) stared

Name: _____

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

Vocabulary in Context

 Patsy Period	Watched rain patter against the windshield of a nearby car.
 Quincy Question	3. Which sound would you hear in a patter ? a) a loud bang b) a repeated tap c) one or two drips of water

 Patsy Period	A man climbed on board with a spotted dog.
 Quincy Question	4. What does the word spotted mean in this sentence? a) CJ saw dirt on the dog. b) CJ saw birthmarks on the dog. c) CJ saw the dog get on the bus.

Name: _____

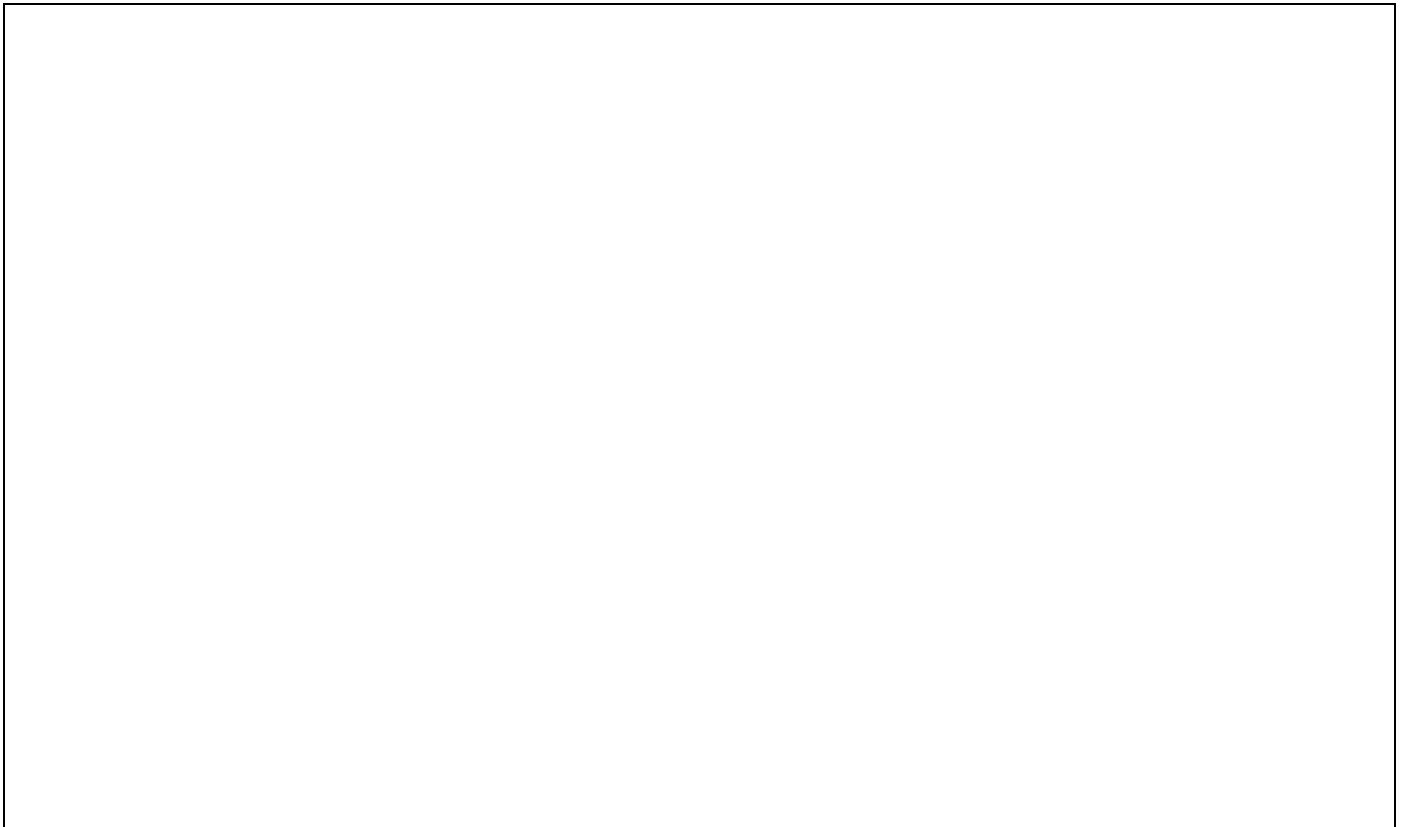

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

Vocabulary in Context

 Patsy Period	When he spotted their familiar faces in the window he said, "I'm glad we came."
 Quincy Question	5. What does the word spotted mean in this sentence? <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) CJ saw dirt on the people's faces.b) CJ missed the people so he was glad they came.c) CJ saw the people and was happy he came.

6. Draw a picture of what CJ's shirt looked like after it rained.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

The Five Senses

Directions: The author gives the reader several details about how CJ uses his five senses in the story. Draw a line from the sense to the detail that uses words related to the sense.

Senses	Details
sight	The outside air smelled like rain.
hearing	The rain dripped down CJ's nose.
taste	From the bus stop, he watched water pool on flower petals.
smell	The bus creaked to a stop in front of them.
touch	CJ stared out the window feeling sorry for himself.
	The guitar player was already plucking strings and beginning to sing.
	Nana squeezed the man's hand and laughed her deep laugh.
	That's a mighty fine perfume you're wearing today, ma'am.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

Punctuation Marks

Patsy Period

Directions: Read each sentence and choose which column the underline word with Aaron Apostrophe belongs. Write the word in the correct column.

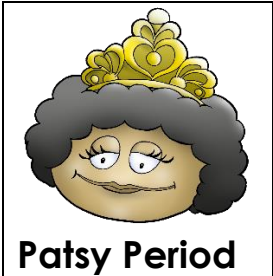

Possession- to own	Contractions- to make shorter

Name: _____

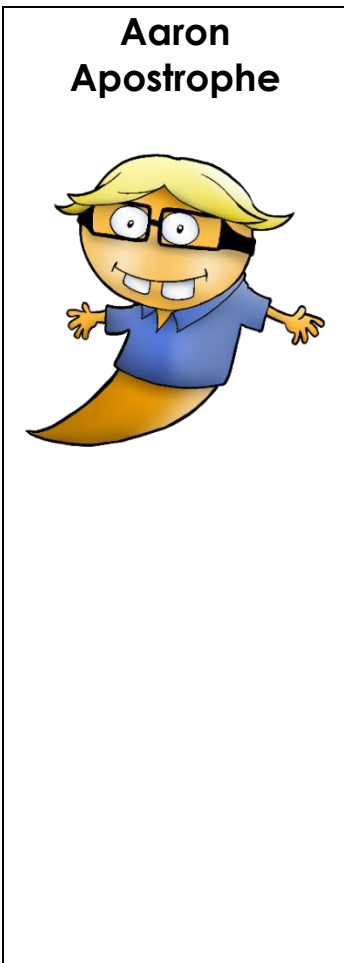

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

Punctuation Marks Student Handout

Directions: Read each sentence and choose which column the underline word with Aaron Apostrophe belongs. Write the word in the right column.

1. He ducked under his nana's umbrella, saying, "How come we gotta wait for the bus in all this wet?"
2. "Don't you see that big one drinking through a straw?"
3. "What's that I see?"
4. "They'll never get a chance to meet Bobo or the Sunglass Man."
5. Saw the old woman's butterflies.
6. CJ's chest grew full and he was lost in the sound and the sound gave him the feeling of magic.
7. Nana glanced at the coin in CJ's palm.
8. CJ dropped it in the man's hat.
9. He reached for his Nana's hand.
10. "How come it's always so dirty over here?"
11. "Sometimes when you're surrounded by dirt, CJ, your're a better witness for what's beautiful."
12. "I'm glad we came."

Name: _____

Date: _____

Punctuation Activity

Direction: Read the question or statement and circle the letter that states what the Punctuation Mark is doing in the bold and underlined word.

 Quincy Question	Don't you see that big one drinking through a straw?
 Patsy Period	1. In the bold and underlined word, Aaron Apostrophe is _____. a) Telling time b) Showing possession c) Creating a contraction
 Patsy Period	"That's a mighty fine perfume you're wearing today, ma'am."
 Quincy Question	2. What is Aaron Apostrophe doing in the bold and underlined word? a) Showing possession b) Creating a contraction c) Abbreviating (shortening) a word

Name: _____

Date: _____

Punctuation Activity

 Patsy Period	“ Nana squeezed the man’s hand and laughed her deep laugh.”
 Quincy Question	3. What is Aaron Apostrophe doing in the bold and underlined word? a) Showing possession b) Creating a contraction c) Abbreviating (shortening) a word
 Patsy Period	“Sometimes when you’re surrounded by dirt, CJ, you’re a better witness for what’s beautiful.”
 Quincy Question	4. What is Aaron Apostrophe doing in the bold and underlined words? a) Showing possession b) Creating a contraction c) Abbreviating (shortening) a word

Name: _____

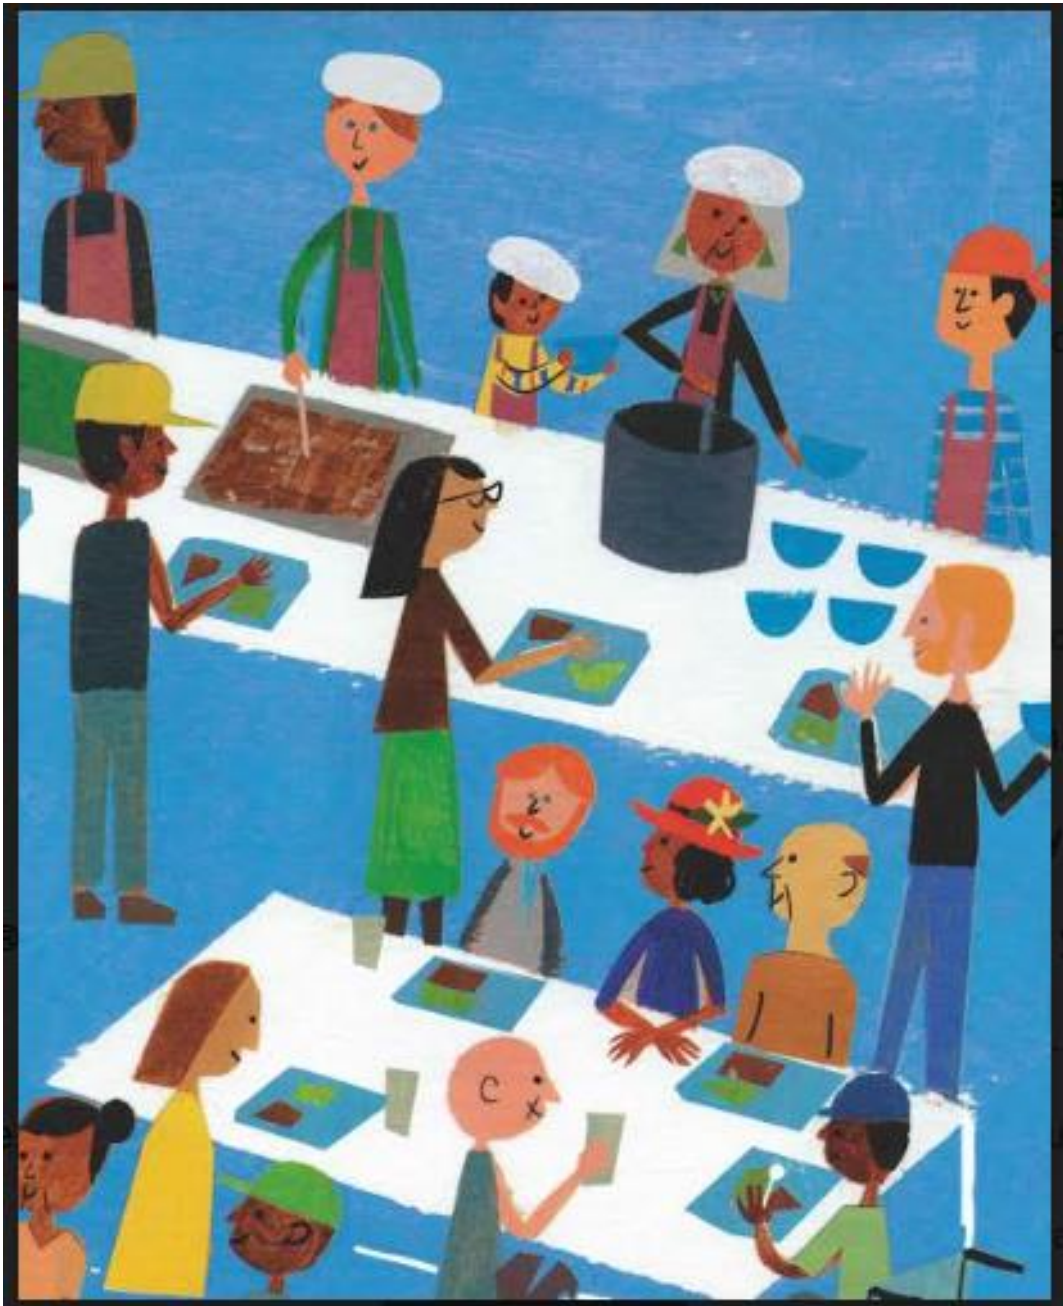

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

Directions:

- Do a CLOSE read of the words and the pictures on these two pages.

Choose the sentence that is the central idea of the story.

- a) CJ and his Nana came to the soup kitchen to eat because they are poor and hungry.
- b) CJ and his Nana came to the soup kitchen to help serve the poor and hungry people.
- c) CJ and his Nana came to the soup kitchen to see how the people were doing.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Last Stop on Market Street

What details did the author and illustrator give you that helped you to choose your answer?